Just A Glass Act (JAGA) is an innovative Australian company that designs and produces unique glass products for the corporate, entertainment, living and leisure space.

Awards

Nothing says, "you've earned it" like a custom designed award. Immortalise that winning feeling with a JAGA creation, designed to your specifications and in your branding.

Corporate Gifts

JAGA can help you create prestigious, personalised gifts that your clients and staff will forever associate with your business – whatever your budget or the occasion.

Custom Designed Art & Sculptures

Create that signature look throughout your office with a style that reflects your corporate image and stays with your clients and prospects long after they've left.

Design Driven

Our local and international designers have an eye for the extraordinary that extends to every piece of art glass we create, to bring you something distinctive, stylish and memorable.

Unique

JAGA offers one-off, statement and collection pieces that can be used as your personal or corporate insignia. What makes them unique is their attention to your individual style.
